

I appreciate the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law that keeps solititors from calling our home and office any time of the day, especially at supper time. I'm not in favor of allowing the CBA to use the "established business relationship" exemption to resume bothersome phone calls.